Paperback. 72 pages. Dimensions: 10.0in. x 8.0in. x 0.2in. As MPs, Patrick, the Captain, and Juliet, his Sergeant, at Fort Shafter, Oahu, Hawaii, pursue a seemingly routine weapons theft case, but find there is more to it, that there are much larger forces operating behind the scenes, both good and bad, their mysterious Colonel eventually initiating and guiding them into these worlds that are even deeper than those of the DIA (Defense Intelligence Agency) and the CIA, and ever onwards towards the ultimate maneuverings, clashes of epic proportions, and even to the underpinnings of reality itself, all as revealed through the shadow empire that is in place to protect the world. There is adventure, drama, romance, police work, mystery, joy, wisdom, interleaved, all at once, and even a grand insight at the end into how and why everything exists. A drug case is the ultimate adventure of the movie, which draws the MPs into the mountains behind the fort, where there is also the Captain's secret mountain retreat. Locales include Oahu, San Francisco, Texas, Tahiti, and Niihau. Long ago, near the end of my Army term, I...
