Since schools have been limited the preference has usually been given to the boys, and the chances for higher education for girls have been small. The Mission Schools with their emphasis on the dignity of woman have helped in creating a new sentiment in this regard; so that there is no doubt but that a few years will show a marked advance in the educational status of women. There is only one institution for women now bearing the name of University, and this is located at Tokyo; but there are many schools where girls may pursue their studies...
