On the voyage a severe storm arose. It continued of such violence tliat the hope of seeing land again was almost abandoned. Her anxiety and fear for the crew and vessel were such that in her distress she sought the Lord for liis i:)rotection. She persuaded the master of the vessel to call the passengers and crew into the main cabin. Then in their presence and hearing, on her knees, she pleaded with her God and lather that they might be brought to their desired haven. At the same time siie recorded a vow that she would build a church for His worship and to His glory. Her prayer was answered. The tempest abated, and the ship much battered reached the Delaware, and the old lady was landed in Philadelphia, where she resided for some years, till her death. When her...
