It tells how his concepts of Christianity and God, everything he learned as a child, were challenged by the trauma he endured. Here is a candid account of a young man returning from the battlefield erroneously thinking he could simply resume life, as he knew it before combat. Living in denial of posttraumatic stress disorder Ray takes you on a journey filled with dead ends, and unfulfilled dreams. Recognizing a person is more than just mind and body, the account tells of his struggle with spiritual issues of faith, hope, and love. In a desperate attempt to find meaning for a life he believed was miraculously spared, he visits the Vietnam memorial wall. This trip changes the course of his life and he finds an alternate route to a life filled with hope.
