

Click: The Forces Behind How We Fully Engage with People, Work, and Everything We Do (Paperback)

By Ori Brafman, Rom Brafman

Crown Business, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. You know the feeling. You meet someone new at a party or at work and you just hit it off. There is an instant sense of camaraderie. In a word, you click. From the bestselling authors of Sway, Click is a fascinating psychological investigation of the forces behind what makes us click with certain people, or become fully immersed in whatever activity or situation we re involved in. From two co-workers who fall head over heels for each other while out to dinner and are married a month later (and fifteen years later remain just as in love), to a team of scientists who changed the world with the magic of their invention, these kinds of peak experiences, when our senses are completely focused on the moment, are something that individuals and companies strive to achieve. After all, when you re in the zone, you re happier and more productive. Why is it that we click in certain situations and with certain people, but not with others? Can this kind of magical connection be consciously encouraged? Is there a way to...
